A Message from Rabbi Matthew Leibl & Rabbi Aníbal Mass

We're already looking forward to the High Holy Days and to seeing all of you again as we bring in the new year of 5779. These will be our first services without Rabbi Green in nearly two decades, marking a significant time of transition for our congregation, but we are truly honoured for this opportunity to build on the innovations we started with him and put our own spin on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. We're thrilled to have Justin Odwak and the Quartet back as well as Leslie Emery leading the Family Service, and we're excited to unveil major enhancements to our Machzor and our Yizkor Book, both of which will make these services even more engaging, relevant, and inspiring. Nobody's going to go home the same. We hope you'll join us. And don't forget to think of our Executive Chef Joel Lafond and his team when you're planning the menus for your holiday lunches and dinners. Shanah Tovah!
